and then broke through for 18 yards and a first down at Moultrie's 24. He took it again and punted right guard for six more. Montgomery made it first down at the Packers' 10, breaking off left tackle for eight yards. The Packers took time out but it didn't help much. Mills kicked left guard for two yards and Montgomery got four more. Mills rolled through from the three-yard line for a touchdown. Montgomery kicked the point and the score was Cairo 20, Moultrie 7.

Cairo kicked off again but the Packers were unable to gain and Clements punted out of bounds at the Cairo 25. Wall and Montgomery then surged down the field all the way to Moultrie's 21 on three plays but they started passing. The passes were batted down by Edson and Banks. At fourth, Miller and Hooper at tackle and Norman and Herrell at the ends, were opening up wide holes in the Moultrie line on the offense, and on defense they held the Packers in check very effectively.

It was a fast and snappy game last night, and Cairo scored early. It looked like a while as if it would be just a breeze for the Syrup-Makers but Moultrie came back with a stubborn fight.

First Period
The Packers received the opening kick-off from Turner. They took 30 yards to Moultrie's 40 where Hooper downed him. Hooper and Montgomery entered two Moultrie thrusts at the line and Cairo punted.

65 Yards Marched
The Syrup-Makers started at their 35 and began a relentless drive toward Moultrie's end. They gave K to Mills, first, and he returned center for seven yards. Montgomery spun through for eight more and a first down at Moultrie's 44. Mills picked up eight more at center.

Second Period
The second quarter rolled around soon after that second Cairo touch-down. However, Moultrie had the ball at their 31 after having received the kick-off at the first period. There were a couple of punt exchanges and then Cairo and Moultrie gave a time-down for Moultrie at the Cairo 44.

Third Period
Bannister and Turner then did a bit of hard running and in three plays drove to the Cairo 8. The Packers got an offensive penalty then but they came back. Turner got 3 yards and then Bannister drove hard for 7 yards to the Moultrie 8.

Fourth Period
Turner got no gain on the next play and it

GOPHERS' GAME WITH NORTHWESTERN TOPS TODAY'S SCHEDULE

Pittsburgh - Fordham Game Important—Santa Clara Faces Auburn Plainesmen.

New York, Oct. 31 (AP)—Two great games—Minnesota vs. Northwestern, Pittsburgh vs. Fordham—almost certainly will settle the big ten championship and a number of other things.

The clash of the Golden Gophers and Northwestern's Wildcats probably will settle the big ten championship and a number of other things.

For the rest of the program, there are such clashes as Princeton vs. Harvard and Yale vs. Princeton.

Running close behind the midwest's Northwestern Wildcats are the Illinois Fighting Illini and the Ohio State Buckeyes.

In the south, where no team has been able to stay on top for long, the Tennessee Volunteers are the leaders.

The game last night—a Tennessee victory of 14-0—was expected to be a close one.

HOW DID IT HAPPEN?

ALBANY WINS FROM TIFTON IN FINAL MOMENTS OF GAME

Valdosta Crushes Waycross, 18-0—Glynn Academy Terror Rout Cordele, 41-0.

Tifton, Ga., Oct. 31 (AP)—Albany's undefeated and untied high school football team won a berth in the Georgia State Football Association play-off on December 4, maintained their perfect season record with a 6-0 victory over the Tifton Blue Devils last night.

Tifton opened up with strictly defensive ball and held the visitors in check throughout the first three periods and until late in the final quarter despite the fact that Albany ran up a total of 11 first downs.

Once, in the second period, Albany had the ball on Tifton's one yard line, but the Blue Devils saved a great goal-line stand to take the ball on downs.

Albany's winning margin came in the last minute and the boys of play after a drive that started from the center stripe, with passes and line plays both intervening in the play.

Valdosta's victory was a 18-0 rout of Waycross. Glynn Academy routed Cordele, 41-0.

The Valdosta team scored in the first and final quarters of the game two of their touchdowns scored early in the first period.

The touchdowns were scored as the Valdosta team drove down the field and recovered fumble and an intercepted forward pass.

One of the high spots of the game came when Hank Walden, Valdosta's fullback, dashed 30 yards for a touchdown.

Glynn Academy's Terran Ryan won a game for Oct. 31 (AP)—The Terran of Glynn Academy, Brunswick High School, annexed another South Georgia Conference game on last night.

PORTER'S 90-YARD RUN TOUCHES OFF SCORING ATTACK

Reserves Play Big Part In Bulldogs' 33-0 Victory Over Pelham Hornets.

A spectacular 90-yard punt return for a touchdown by Louis Porter in the first period touched off an offensive attack that culminated in a 33-0 victory for the Thomasville High Bulldogs over the Pelham Hornets.

With Thomasville playing most of the game and Billy Runyan and Gus Letcham running for the gridiron as the Pelham Hornets' star players.

The Hornets scored one touchdown in each of the first three periods and then added two more in the final quarter.

Harry Black, field little backfield star was Pelham's brightest luminary as the Hornets offered stubborn resistance to the Thomasville attack.

In scoring their 33-0 victory, the Bulldogs rolled up a total of 33 first downs to five for Pelham.

A mixed line-up started the Bulldogs who won the toss and elected to kick off to Pelham.

The Hornets scored one touchdown in each of the first three periods and then added two more in the final quarter.

The touchdowns were scored as the Auburn team drove down the field and recovered fumble and an intercepted forward pass.

One of the high spots of the game came when Hank Walden, Valdosta's fullback, dashed 30 yards for a touchdown.
