Bazemore Has Rough Job As Dosta Defends Title

By CURRY BOWERS
 Sports Editor, Valdosta Times
 Valdosta, Oct. 5 (AP)—Jimmy Bazemore, former Marist star, who pitched the Valdosta Wildcats to the state football title last year, would trade jobs this season with most members of the South Georgia League.

He would rather turn the Wildcats over to Assistant Coach Dick Davis to defend the championship title this year.

Jimmy Bazemore, 1932, was the state champion pitcher in 1942. The stocky-built, 5 ft. 8 in. coach, who has his hair starting to turn gray, was wearing a brown suit and tie when he was interviewed.

Bazemore, who is now a member of the Valdosta team, is a member of the Valdosta team, which is competing in the Valdosta League. He is a member of the Valdosta team, which is competing in the Valdosta League.
